PRICES ARE SUBJECT TO REVIEW (Prices are generally based on one berth remaining empty. For some low season w/e's, price reductions could be achieved by down sizing to smaller boats).

NOTES: 1.0 Accommodation & meals will be provided on board the yacht.

2.0 Berth reservations:

- Berth reservations must be confirmed in writing or by e-mail, together with payment in full of the berth fee.
- Cancellations: Once a boat has been booked with the yacht charterer no refunds can be made for berth cancellations (unless a replacement crew person can be found).

3.0 Note that for additional expenses to cover onboard food, harbour fees, diesel fuel etc crew should budget for £15 per day per person (does not include for any meals ashore).

4.0 Non-London IVC members will need to pay a surcharge of £10 towards the IVC Public Liability Insurance cover.

5.0 Boats cannot be booked until sufficient applications have been received to cover the charter cost, hence book early or events may not happen. Prices & venues may vary subject to boat availability.

6.0 Unless stated otherwise, all weekend events commence on the Friday evening.

7.0 Border Agency Requirements & checks for crew sailing cross-channel are being significantly increased: All British & other EU nationals must carry a passport. Non-EU nationals must carry a passport and in addition, also carry all necessary visas etc for travelling between the UK, France & the Channel Islands.

8.0 Organiser John Strode – See London IVC web site for details of event & organisers contact details.

No sailing experience necessary*, just book a place and join in the fun!! *The Skipper will ensure that collectively, crew has adequate experience to handle the boat
